THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

Inside View of Politics, Finance and Trade in California.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—You desire to know what is thought here of the new constitution, and as to its effect on California and Nevada. If I could tell you of its future effects I would be a greater prophet than Daniel, Amos or Jeremiah. Its present effect is evil, simply because we have no prophets who have given sufficient proof of divine inspiration to warrant belief in their prophecies. "Capital is timid," and because no one knows what will be the future effect of the new constitution, it has withdrawn from view. Manufacturers are afraid to enlarge their business and create stock for which there may not be a market, and they are discharging employees. People who contemplate building are waiting for the belief that the adoption of the new constitution will cause real estate and building material to fall still lower. Banks are doing but little business, encouraging no new enterprises, and letting no money except to the best and soundest customers, and then only on gilt edged security. Everybody is taking in sail and preparing for still harder times. The president of one of the largest and soundest banks said a few days since, his directors would call a meeting of stockholders to decide on disincorporating, as their capital could be put to a better use individually than as an incorporation when the new constitution goes into operation. It is reported that the heaviest quicksilver mines in Lake and Sonoma decided to-day, in consequence of the low price of quicksilver, and to create a fund to meet the increased taxation required by the fundamental law, on the 1st of June they would propose to their workmen

A REDUCTION OF TEN PER CENT. IN WAGES, which if not accepted, the mines would be closed. Fruit and packing companies, in the fear of the future, have discharged many employees, and already the ranks of idle laborers, waiting for work at the corner of Kearney and Market streets, are daily reinforced. The capitalists, merchants and business men are scared, unnecessarily scared I think. The Bulletin and Alta have taken alarm at the timidity of capital and the approaching increase of stagnation in business enterprises, and urge upon business men that perhaps the evils feared from the new constitution may in some way be averted, or that perhaps in operation they will not be as serious as apprehended. They ask them to continue pending enterprises and manufactures, and to make further investments as being the best means of restoring confidence. The Chronicle, which is nothing if not sensational and satanic, says that in writing in this manner the Bulletin admits that it lied during the campaign, and predicted evils which it now asserts will have no existence. The best, soundest and shrewdest business men are looking for utter stagnation with armies of idle men, until after the legislature has convened and by enactments carried the new constitution into practical operation, and until its most important provisions have been interpreted by the courts, and so dollars are frightened and are going into four-cent bonds, five-cent stockings, into old tea-pots, and under the hearth. Unless we get over our scare there will be no extension of notes or renewal of mortgages, and the courts will be busy foreclosing suits. The sun will rise and set, grass will grow and water will run down hill; men will consume wheat, beef and mutton, women will wear Indian shawls, Belgian lace, China silks and Parisian bonnets; the community will gamble in stocks, and if not in stocks, then in cards or jack-straws; California will continue to WASTE FIFTY-FIVE MILLIONS A YEAR on alcohol of all grades, from lachryma christi to sheepherder's delight, and another five million in tobacco of all forms, including regalias from Havana and thinkers from Connecticut under the new constitution as they did under the old, and in time we will accommodate ourselves to the new condition of things, as did the feet of the penitential monks of old to the hard peas in their shoes. "God's chosen people" (they are still God's chosen people in that they thrive best in all that men struggle for) are calling in loans, with the certainty of ages of experience, that in the times of doubt, uncertainty and distrust ready money earns greater profits than any other commodity, and God have mercy! The poor have to bear the brunt and pay the expense of all these experiments made in efforts to improve the condition of society. What is to follow? I was in the director's room of a bank yesterday. There happened there two men; one had started in life as a machinist, then took up 100 acres and farmed, made money and then made safe investments and now controlled a large capital; the other commenced on a farm, then sold groceries and now saw mill and now also has a large capital.

AN OPINION.

I asked them what is to follow. One said: "A majority of the people voted for the new constitution—all the workmen as a political party, most of the laborers, all the unsuccessful farmers, all the people who hoped to have freight carried more cheaply on the railroads, all the temperance people because it contains "local option," nearly all the men who had been in the confederate army, all the men who had been unfortunate through habits of intemperance and every man who had been "coined" through gambling in stocks, and all who had made failures in life and wanted a "new deal"—and these make the majority. I am in favor of having them carry it out to the fullest extent, and when they find that legislation will not reform a drunkard nor enactments make men economical, sober and industrious, and that a clause in a constitution cannot force the imprudent and extravagant to live within their incomes, nor an act of Congress make eighty cents equal to a dollar, nor a bill in Parliament regulate what Peter shall pay John for the use of John's money, they will turn and wipe out the experiment we are now on the eve of trying." The other took issue and answered: "Revolutions never go backwards." We must give our best efforts for good legislation to round off the rough corners of this new experiment. The simple minded who voted for the new instrument with the belief that it would "make the Chinese go," will find that it is

POWERLESS FOR THIS PURPOSE. The corporations will obey and on the first of January discharge from employment say 2000 Chinese; their places are to be taken by 2,000 negroes, which the newspapers say Huntington is to bring from Kansas. The Chinese will seek the farms and cities and because they drink no rum nor beer and have no families and work for low wages the small farmers who voted for the new constitution will give them employment in preference to the white laborers who voted with them. Interest is to go up instead of down. Business will not improve, no more railroads will be built, no more large engineering enterprises inaugurated, no new manufactures started until it is known what the courts say is meant by the different clauses of the new instrument. All this falls on the poor man and the laborer. He will call for more legislation and more radical measures. Kearney said Sunday at the sand lots, "The new constitution is not radical enough to suit me. It is not half radical enough to suit the people of California." So if more men are idle and wages fall still lower from increased competition they will not return to the old constitution, but the cry will be for more radical legislation. In the French revolution, when the assembly decreed the price of labor, of bread, and of butchers' meat, and the butchers and bakers gave up business because they could make no money, the cry was for

MORE RADICAL MEASURES which were adopted and the bakers and butchers were sent to the guillotine. So it was in the Rump Parliament, when enactments failed to upturn and override the laws of nature, more radical enactments were called for. So it was under the Commune, and so will it be with us unless we use every effort to shape legislation to counteract the communistic and agrarian features of our new fundamental law." You see how little light I obtained for you even from our soberest, shrewdest and most successful citizens. The leaders of the incongruous majority who have won the victory seem to be as much at sea as the "property, standing and respectability," who are to be kept in the old war of Broderick's day is renewed between the "Irish and the Chivs." Terry, Howard and the De Youngs are for a new party to control the state and divide the offices, honors and emoluments. They propose graciously to permit Kearney and W. P. C. to vote their ticket and set as tail to the new kite. Without consulting with the Workmen they are organizing the new party in all the counties of the state and by resolutions calling on the Chronicle to name the day for a state convention. They are acting as if ashamed of further contact with a "damned mouth" whose blasphemous names and adjectives are constructed into sentences where the verbs do not agree with their nominatives. Kearney and his ward presidents are

"BUCKING LIKE A BROCKO" and call the constitutional party "a party of frauds" and its leaders "honorable bilks," and he urges on the Workmen everywhere to stand by their original organization. He appears to fear that the love of the leaders of the new party is much warmer for the principles of the "Kearney" than it is for labor reform and that their ultimate object is to take the Irish workmen back to the voting for the Democratic party. He is sending out agents to all the counties to quietly consolidate the followers into a compact organization. Which faction will get the votes of the farmers and farm-laborers? The old Democratic party proper, much wasted, worn, disorganized and battered, is still clinging to the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of '58, and mambles in the dotage of the glories of the past. The Confederate brigadier-generals of congress have ordered it not to be used as a decoy bait, but to let Kearney sleep it, but to put in an appearance of life in the interest of national politics and go through the form of primaries and conventions, and if nothing better can be done make a ticket composed of the fossil remains of the Megatherium, the Ichthyosaurus, the Lepidosteus and other fragments of a past age.

THE REPUBLICANS come out of the scrimmage with less loss than their old opponents they have lost some men and had many wounded. The John Lord Loves, the McCune, the McCalluma and the Eatons are not much lost. They are the Du-gald Dalgetty's in every contest and are never so happy as when searching for a new party to join. So we are to have four tickets. First to be named, for the respectability of its dotage, the old Democratic ticket; second for its vigor, the Workmen's ticket; third because it is national, the Republican ticket and lastly the Chronicle, Terry, Howard or new constitution ticket. What ticket will win? When David hunted through the mountains by Saul, fled to the cave of Adullam, the good book says, there all those who were in debt, all those who were in distress, all those who were unhappy and at war with society, (it seems to be the earliest account we have of tramps.) If I vote whether the Adullamites would vote with Kearney or Terry, I might make a guess As the matter stands it looks well for the Republicans. If the Monseur Tonsons, who are always turning up at inopportune times to fight over the next senatorship, can be "set down upon" for a season, they will probably carry the state. How is Nevada effected by the new constitution? The Comstock and other mines are the ligature which unite Chang and Eng. As this ligature is to be severed they will both suffer.

San Francisco, May 15th, 1879.

"We have sold a large amount of Dr. Mintie's medicine; the English Dandelion Pills; also the Nephreticum, and in all cases they are highly spoken of and give entire satisfaction."

John A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland.

C. H. Woodward & Co., Druggists, corner First and Alder street, Portland.

Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale, Druggists, Nos. 3 and 5 Front street, San Francisco, say:

THE RAIN FALL.

We watch with the greatest interest the many experiments that are being made in different localities to raise crops without irrigation. There is no doubt but that the land at the mouth of any of the large canyons can be successfully cultivated. The best judges say that the spring rains are later and heavier than they used to be and we can readily believe it. There are several causes for it. One is the growth of trees and crops which is getting to be very great in western Nevada, and which are known to catch loaded clouds. Another is the turning up of the soil which effects the atmosphere very much. Still another which we have never seen mentioned, is the great destruction of timber on the Sierra. Mountains covered with timber gather a great deal more snow than mountains without timber, and when moisture laden clouds blow across the summit they retain much more of the precipitation than before the trees were thinned out. As this country fills up the patches which can be made to produce will be gradually utilized and every year plowed and every tree planted will bring more rain until the history of the Sacramento Valley is repeated in Nevada and we raise all our own wheat as we now do our hay. Of course the great range of mountains will materially interfere with our rain fall but we are of the opinion that Nevada will become as reliable a farming section as the San Joaquin valley is now south of Fresno.

OUTRAGEOUS.

A most commendable spirit has been manifested by this community during the campaign going on against intemperance. We have not heard of a single instance where a liquor dealer has made the slightest effort to interfere with the movement or attempted to overcome the good resolutions of any of the men and women who have left off their cups. The saloon keepers all express themselves as perfectly willing to sell or keep their stock according to the demand. If a man wants a drink he gets it. If he doesn't want a drink nobody asks him to buy it. Neither in thoughtless sport or in double damned villainy, a few young men have come, threatened, and ridiculed a fellow citizen who has joined one of the temperance clubs, in a thus far vain attempt to induce him to break his pledge. They have held the bottle to his nose where the smell, touched his nostrils perhaps with the odor of a nectar. They have tried to get him to drink with them in every way they could, but we believe unsuccessfully. This man has at times been reduced to the lowest stage of poverty by drink. He has suffered everything from it, and men who are so unprincipled, so utterly hateful and mean as to try to bring him into this condition again deserve the tag bucket with all its variations.

LATEST NEWS.

Jaquin Miller, is a letter to the San Francisco Chronicle, denies that his daughter Maude has been arrested, as has been published in that and other coast papers.

The confidential clerk and book-keeper of Redington & Co., wholesale druggists of San Francisco, has absconded. The amount of his defalcation is not known. He leaves behind him a wife and children.

We publish on the first page, an able review of the situation in California. It is from one of the ablest pens on the coast. It is so complete that comes in a handy way.

Be Warned, of No. 124 South Street, Virginia, is the acknowledged champion on this coast for chronic and nervous diseases. Try him; he never fails to cure. His motto is, No cure, no pay. Life changes are reasonable.

JOTTINGS.

—Two educated southern ladies wish homes in the west. See ad.

—New spring hats at Miss Harney's—not running springs nor watch springs—but a spring of joy forever.

—A large band of sheep, owned by J. C. Cutting, was driven through town early this morning.

—The board of commissioners have the question of a fireproof vault for the court-house under consideration.

—Stocks improved a good deal this afternoon after the beard. Mexican was 36, Ophir 42, Sierra Nevada 50.

—T. F. Laycock is doing a great deal of sign and ornamental painting. His talents are of a high order.

—Knut & Jones have a fine gilt and black sign in front of the desk at the end of their store. It lightens up the room very much.

—The engine, No. 24, that was ditched above Verdi Monday night, went to Truckee last night to be placed in running order again.

—The Reform Club hold a meeting in the court-house this evening. H. H. Back will deliver an address. Everybody is invited to come.

—The shieling, etc., in A. H. Manning's store is being rapidly put up to receive the new stock, which Mr. Manning is purchasing below.

—Cold, cloudy, windy, and generally disagreeable to-day. It seems impossible to have more than two days pleasant weather at a time.

—The Union block on Virginia street has been painted a bright red, and penciled. It is new about as handsome a row as can be seen anywhere.

—The contract for putting the county vault in the court-house was awarded to Diebold, Morris & Co. by the commissioners. The price for the work is about $2250.

Another Enterprise.

C. J. Brookins has started a candy manufactory in the rear of his variety store. The appliances are as yet somewhat crude, but they will be improved soon as it is arranged. The services of an experienced candy-maker have been engaged to superintend the work. Many kinds of plain and fancy candies are being manufactured now, though arrangements have not been perfected to make some of the finer kinds. Mr. Brookins says he can easily compete with San Francisco manufactory, and will hereafter manufacture all candies sold in his store.

I. Barnett.

The pioneer dry goods man sends word from San Francisco that he will open about the 20th, with a full stock of goods which has never been excelled in style and cheapness of prices, as mostly all of his goods have been bought at Godchaux's great liquidation sale, direct from the bonded warehouse. It will be greatly to the advantage of the ladies to wait for the opening of the store of I. Barnett.

The Metropolitan.

Charley Merrill will open the bar of the new Metropolitan hotel, on the corner of Virginia street, this evening. It has been elegantly fitted up, and will be provided with the best of liquors and cigars. The restaurant of the hotel will be opened in about two weeks.

Minstrel Coming.

Barlow, Wilson, Primrose & West's minstrel will give an entertainment at Kimball's hall on either the 28th or 29th of May.

PERSONAL.

Judge Keiser, of Truckee, is in town.

Hon. C. C. Stevenson, of Gold Hill, is in town.

W. R. Chamberlain went to San Francisco last night.

H. F. Baker, of the Lyon County Times, is registered at the Lake House.

County commissioner Olinghouse, of Wadsworth, is in Reno attending the meeting of the board.

Col. John D. Wilkins, U. S. A., arrived from San Francisco this morning. He leaves for Camp Bidwell on Monday.

The People's Bath-house.

The new barber shop and bathing establishment of Coleman & Pechner has many improvements over the old. It is new and fresh, and that always makes anything shine, but besides that the general style of the fixtures and furniture are first class. The front shop is fitted up with two chairs with mirrors opposite, the usual racks full of cups and razors. A washstand surmounted with a mirror stands at the back. In the rear are three neat and clean bath rooms, well aired and lighted, and furnished with the usual hot and cold faucets. In addition to these the shower bath connects with the hot water tank and the temperature can be regulated to any degree, which is often necessary to prevent a shock to nervous people. A huge tank in the back yard has a furnace extending through the center, where the water is heated for the establishment.

Installation of Officers.

The following officers of Washoe Encampment, I. C. of R. O., were installed last evening by D. D. G. Com. Edwards, assisted by Dr. Coon, G. L. A. McKibben, E. C. J. Bradshaw, E. Coun.; Miss J. Hill, S. C.; W. J. Baker, C. of H.; C. Hill, W. Sec.; W. Storey, F. S.; Miss Ida Coats, W. T.; Minnie Jones, J. C.; Webster, C. of R. O.; C. Lambert, 1st G.; Miss E. V. Barnes, M. of C.; Louis Wortman, R. S.; Mrs. McKibben, Im.; Fred Hopkins, Im.; M. Bowen, C.; M. D. McGrath, 1st G. of C.; Miss Maud Johnson, D. C. of H. The lodge now has a membership of 83, and more are being initiated every meeting.

Chase's New Saloon.

Yesterday Charley Chase threw open the doors of his new saloon, on Virginia street, to the public. The appointments of the saloon are elegant and expensive; chaste and costly pictures adorn the walls, and the fittings and glassware of the bar is exceedingly fine. The bar is a magnificent piece of workmanship. The walls are plastered and wainscoted in handsome style, and all the late papers lie on the tables. Only the best brands of liquors and cigars are kept, and the barkeepers are polite and gentlemanly. Everything in the saloon looks bright, cheerful and cozy, and is a continual temptation to "smile."

The Methodist Episcopal Fair.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal society have about completed preparations for holding their fair and festival for the benefit of the church. It will be held at the pavilion, and will last three days, beginning on Wednesday, the 31st. The ladies have been indefatigable in their efforts to make it a grand affair, and they will doubtless make it a social and pecuniary success. The price of a ticket is a small matter, 50 cents, and everybody ought to have one and help the society along.

The Trial of the Bruisers.

A large crowd of interested spectators gathered at the justice court this morning to witness the trial of the parties engaged in Thursday's prize fight. Jones and Brown, the two principals, both appeared with badly battered countenances. A jury was empaneled, and the trial has been going on all day. Several of the parties were found guilty, and one, J. Williams, was acquitted.

New Goods.

Miss Brown has a new advertisement in this afternoon's GAZETTE. She is in daily receipt of new and nice goods from the great cities, which make the ladies count their money over a great many times, and cause the men to wish they were women of Indian so they could wear the pretty things.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

There will be divine service at the M. E. church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. Rev. C. McKelvey officiating. Seats free. All are invited. Sabbath school at 1:30 P. M.

Two Ladies Educated in Georgia.

Two ladies educated in Georgia wish the situation to teach, either in Nevada or California. Would not object to teaching in a family in the country or a small village or would assist in a high school. Good reference will be given. Address, Miss S. E. Lawer, Newman, Coweta county, Georgia.

In the absence of other amusements.

Prof. Scott's Saturday evening soirees are a great blessing to the young folks. One will come off as usual at Kimball's hall this evening.

Episcopal Church.

There will be divine service at the Episcopal church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:30 in the evening. Rev. Mr. Jolley officiating.

Paints and Oil.

F. Beach has received a big stock of Paints, Oils, Glazes, Lacks, and all kinds of building material, which he will sell over than ever before in Reno. Give him a call.

To the Good People of Reno.

Having entered the field with the balance to contend for a share of the public patronage, it would perhaps be well at the start to state our claims to the above. I am not a sufferer by the fire, so claim no sympathy on that score. I believe it's the duty of the good people to give preference to old residents, provided all things are equal, but if Brown asks fifty cents for what Smith is willing to sell for twenty-five, on the grounds that he is looser by the fire and wants to get even, the trade will naturally go to the latter. Hence I say we have no claim on the people except as those who may wish to economize. If you wish to buy your wife a fine silk dress by all means go to Emrich. If you want a suit of fine clothes go to friend Nathan's or Abrams', but if you want a "goose yoke," rat trap or jack knife go to Tanke Dodge's, where a dollar will buy a basketful. Recollect goods just as square as though sold over a marble counter. A child that can lip out the names of the articles wanted, can buy just as cheap as an expert.

P. S.—Money will be refunded on all goods that do not prove as represented.
